

Patrick Melrose

Starring Benedict Cumberbatch and based on the award-winning novels by Edward St Aubyn, this drama hilariously skewers the upper class as it tracks Patrick's journey from a traumatic childhood through to adult substance abuse and ultimately, towards recovery.

Fortitude

Fortitude is the most northerly town in the world, and the most peaceful – until a prominent member of the community is found eviscerated in his own home, and suddenly the town's sheriff has his first ever murder to investigate. Starring Michael Gambon and Christopher Eccleston.

No Offence

Crime drama written by award-winning Paul Abbott, set in a crumbling cop shop on the wrong side of Manchester. Drug labs, neo-Nazis and notorious murderers are all in a day's work for this team, led by the capable but unhinged DI Vivienne Deering.

Endeavour

Following the young Endeavour Morse in his early days as an Oxford police constable working with CID, encountering Strange for the first time, and developing the notable personality traits he would latterly refine.

The Fall

Starring Emmy and Golden Globe award-winner Gillian Anderson, this gripping psychological thriller forensically examines the lives of two hunters... One a serial killer that stalks his victims at random and the other a high-powered detective superintendent brought in to catch him.

Acquitted

Businessman Aksel Borgen, formally acquitted of murder, returns to his hometown of Lifjord after 20 years to save an important local business, which is on the verge of bankruptcy. But his return reminds people about the unsolved murder.
